Wānanga

We are a key stakeholder in Te Mana Tikitiki.

We can engage with the school about Te Mana Tikitiki on our own terms and in our own way.

We feel well-informed, confident, and part of what's happening with Te Mana Tikitiki.

Our knowledge and perspectives are respected and integrated to benefit tamariki taking part in Te Mana Tikitiki.

Whanaungatanga

We feel welcome and included.

We have great relationships with the school.

All of our interactions with the school have been good (even when there has been an issue, or we have had concerns).

We know the principal and kaiwhakahaere, and they know who we are.

Manaakitanga

The school respects and embraces Māori language and culture.

Being Māori is highly valued at this school.

The teachers care about our tamariki and always talk positively about them.

Ako

Our tamariki are achieving well at this school.

We talk with leaders regularly about the learning of our tamariki.

We determine the type of information we want to receive about the learning of our tamariki and how that information is provided.
